

Organized by
Centre for Engineering Education Research, KLE Technological University
B. V. Bhoomaraddi Campus, Vidyanagar, Hubballi (India) in collaboration with

Aalborg Centre for Problem Based Learning in Engineering Science and Sustainability, under the auspices of UNESCO

PBL pedagogy provides opportunities for students to learn and practice the competencies required by the engineering profession in the 21st century. The objectives of this research symposium are to bring together academicians and researchers to deliberate on the current state of PBL practices in India and gain from the experiences of the advanced practitioners in this field.

We invite you to share your PBL stories on the following themes: -

- Cross-disciplinary PBL
- PBL for Sustainability
- E-learning and learning technologies for PBL
- PBL for entrepreneurship and leadership
- Students' learning process
- Evaluating practice – models and approaches
- Assessment methods
- PBL experiences at first-year engineering
- Management of change
- Teacher roles in PBL
- PBL with large student groups
- PBL for continuing professional development
- Industry- university collaboration in PBL
- Challenges of implementing PBL in a global and local context – a cross cultural perspective

Proceedings

All accepted papers, whose author(s) register, would be included in the proceedings of the symposium which will be published in the Journal of Engineering Education Transformations (JEET). JEET is approved by University Grants Commission, India. It is also indexed in Elsevier's largest database SCOPUS. You can find more information about the journal at the following link <http://www.journaleet.org/>.

Location

The symposium will be held on November 22-23, 2019 at KLE Technological University, B. V. Bhoomaraddi Campus, Vidyanagar, Hubballi (India), 580031

Submission Procedure

Submissions for the main conference must be made online through EasyChair (<https://easychair.org/conferences/?conf=rrspbl2019>).
